A unique experience to discover Italy through Opera

D2041 is pleased to offer to the participants of this camp a unique experience related to the theme of Italian Opera. Italy is the country of opera music, the homeland of immortal composers such as Verdi, Puccini, Rossini and Vivaldi. This is demonstrated by the spectacular theaters present, known throughout the world, from La Scala in Milan, one of the most prestigious theaters in the world, to the Arena in Verona and La Fenice in Venice.

All of us are fascinated by the opera, as evidenced by the fact that many pieces of opera are found in films or commercials.

Through the opera the participants will be led to know some of the most beautiful corners of our country, to discover the places that were the background to the tragedies and stories of the most famous operas in the world.

You will have the opportunity to discover Italian Opera on and off stage. In addition, of course, you will have the opportunity to attend prestigious operas and discover the theaters behind the scenes.

At the same time, an opportunity to explore the rich cultural and musical heritage of cities like Milan, Verona, Venice, and Bergamo, be immersed in Italian opera and culture, and closely observe famous artists and attend n.1 performances. Come and discover Italy through Opera!.
